

The Power of Words' Artist: Jennell Reynolds

2021 PROGRAM FINALE

Join us for the Grand Finale of our Readers and Writers Esperance 2021 Program. This weekend of events featuring visiting writers and Esperance writers is the culmination of 5 months of workshops designed to establish new connections and develop new skills for telling local stories.

FRIDAY 28TH MAY

	Bijou Auditorium
5.00pm	Book Launch - Dr Nicole Chalmer, Ecoagriculture for Sustainable Food Futures
6.00pm	Meet and Greet Event 6.15pm: Welcome to Country with Annie Dabb & Wanika Close
7.00pm	Short Performance: Sam Carmody

SATURDAY 29TH MAY

	Bijou Auditorium	RAOB Hall
9.00 - 10.00am	Romance & Crime: Genre Fiction: Fleur McDonald & Wanika Fazekas with Carol Hoggart	Creative Writing Workshop: with Sam Carmody
10.00 - 10.30am	Morning Tea
10.30 - 11.30am	Writing Environment: Andrea Gaynor, Yann Toussaint & Nicole Chalmer with Will Yeoman
11.30 - 12.30pm	Falling off the Edge and Climbing the Cliff, the Jack Muir Trilogy: Jon Doust with Caitlyn Edwards	Poetry Readings: Southern Scribes & Yann Toussaint with Thuriyya Ibrahim
12.30 - 1.00pm	Lunch	Lunch
1.00 - 2.00pm	Writing & Illustrating for Children: Mark Greenwood, Frane Lessac & Briony Stewart with Jon Doust	Travel Writing for the West Australian: Will Yeoman with Megan McDowell
2.00 - 3.00pm	In Conversation with Sam Carmody: songwriter and author of The Windy Season , and Helen McCarthy	Writing Historical Fiction: Sarah Drummond, Karli Florrison & Mark Greenwood with Carol Hoggart
3.00 - 4.00pm	Esperance Writers Showcase - Promoting & Networking Local Writers: Esperance Writers with Megan Warren
4.00 - 5.00pm	Keynote Presentation - Edge-wise: On Edge? At the Edge? by Kim Scott - award-winning author, 2012 West Australian of the Year and 2019 inductee into the WA Writers Hall of Fame will speak about his introduction to literature and the ways in which books and other language artefacts might spring from, and also replenish, the stories, history and people of a particular geographic place. He will pay particular attention to the south-east coast of Western Australia and his own experience. Introduced by Annie Dabb & Wanika Close
5.30 - 7.30pm	Book Launch - Our Art, Our Culture, Our Way: Kepa Kurl Community Arts Programs 2016 - 2021: Indigenous Arts and Culture Partnership Program at the Esperance Bay Yacht Club

EVENT TYPES

Session	Workshop	Panel	Linked Event	Readings	Demonstration
---------	----------	-------	--------------	----------	---------------

All events are free to attend. Donations appreciated.

Places are limited at each event. Please register your attendance by visiting <https://www.readersandwritersesperance.com/> or contacting Esperance Community Arts by email admin@esperancecommunityarts.org.au or phone 9072 1158.

Readers & Writers Esperance 2021 is presented by Esperance Community Arts with the support of a volunteer subcommittee of local readers and writers. This project is partly supported through the State Government's Royalties for Regions Program as part of the Regional Arts and Cultural Investment Program, and Regional Arts WA. Thank you to all our project sponsors and core funding partners.

Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries
Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development

REGIONAL ARTS WA

SUNDAY 30TH MAY

'The Power of Words' Artist: Jennell Reynolds

	Bijou Auditorium	RAOB Hall
9.00 - 10.00am	In Conversation with Briony Stewart: author of Kumiko and the Dragon (and many more), and Kim Maslin	Travel Writing & Photography Workshop: with Will Yeoman
10.00 - 10.30am	Morning Tea
10.30 - 11.30am	In Conversation with Sarah Drummond, author of The Sound and Salt Story , and Yann Toussaint
11.30 - 12.30pm	Voices from remote locations - Regional Fiction: Fleur McDonald & Sarah Drummond with Dorothy Henderson
12.30 - 1.00pm	Lunch	Lunch
1.00 - 2.00pm	The Publishing Journey: Nicole Chalmer, Wanika Fazekas, Dorothy Henderson, James England, Carol Hoggart, Fleur McDonald & Jon Doust with Lois Saunders	1:00 - 2:30pm Memory Keeping: Writing with Archives (Panel / Q&A): Jen Ford & Andrea Gaynor with Megan Warren
2.00 - 3.00pm	Regional story keeping: capturing daily life through news reporting: Dorothy Henderson, Lois Saunders, Will Yeoman & Madison Snow with Clara Graham	2.30 - 3.30pm How to be an Author: Georgia Richter, Fremantle Arts Press with Yann Toussaint (Zoom Presentation)
1.00 - 3.00pm	Illustrator in Residence: Work in Progress (Petite Bijou) with Frane Lessac
3.00 - 4.00pm	From Play Scripts to Podcasts: Kym 'Bid' Bidstrup and Project Participants with Lois Saunders	3.30 - 4.00pm 2040 Creative Writing Awards: Esperance Climate Action Group with Yann Toussaint & Karli Florrisson
4.00 - 5.00pm	Advice for Writers: Don't give up: Kim Scott, Wanika Fazekas & Sarah Drummond with Andrea Gaynor

ADDITIONAL EVENTS

Date	Event	Location
Saturday 22nd May - Sunday 6th June 1.00 - 4.00pm (Tues- Fri or by appointment)	On the Edge Of... An exhibition of artworks created from recycled books	Esperance Community Arts Space
Wednesday 26th May 2.00 - 5.00pm 6.00 - 8.00pm	Southern Scribes Travel Writing Workshop Series: with Will Yeoman, Travel Writer at the West Australian	Mary Ann Haven, Hopetoun
Thursday 27th May 9.00 - 12.00pm	Southern Scribes Travel Writing Workshop Series: with Will Yeoman, Travel Writer at the West Australian	Mary Ann Haven, Hopetoun
11.30 - 3.00pm	Readers and Writers Esperance Schools Program	Author talks for students from 13 schools in the Esperance region
Friday 28th May 9.00 - 3.00pm	Readers and Writers Esperance Schools Program
4.30 - 6.00pm	Learn to Create Mystery from History: Mark Greenwood & Karli Florrisson	Esperance Museum
Saturday 29th May 10.00am	Book Reading: Jodi McNish, Cy's Adventures: Pirate.	Esperance Public Library

VENUES

The Bijou Theatre, 115 Dempster Street	RAOB Hall, 115 Dempster Street (Behind the Bijou Theatre)	Esperance Bay Yacht Club The Esplanade	Esperance Public Library Windich Street	Esperance Community Arts Space 67 Dempster Street	Mary Ann Haven, Veal Street, Hopetoun For details contact Dellis from the Southern Scribes on 0429 329 229
--	--	--	---	---	---